Spotlight Of Football In South Is Focused On Cat-Alabama Contest Saturday

The eyes of southern football

fandom will be centered on Lexington tomorrow when the mighty Crimson Tide of Alabama and the fighting Wildcats of Kentucky take to Stoll field at 2 p. m. to renew a gridiron rivalry that dates back to 1917, and to usher in one of the most elaborate Homecoming programs ever staged at the University.

The Wildcats will go up against great odds just as great odds in 1922 when they sent Alabama's title hopes for a spin by the count of 6 to 0. Coach Wynne has five regulars on the injured list, but it is expected that these lads will be in shape by game time. Captain Rupert and Long, ends; Wagner and Nevers, tackles; and Pritchard, fullback, are under the care of the trainer. Pritchard's injury is the most serious. His shoulder, which was injured in the Auburn game, may break into the lineup. Rupert's half dozen or so bolts probably will give him trouble up to game time.

Although Alabama possesses too much man power and reserve strength for the Cats, 60 minutes of good, clean fighting can be expected as the Big Blue goes forward in an effort to "stem the Tide."

A unique situation will occur tomorrow when the teams lineup in battle formation. Coach Frank Thomas of Alabama and Coach Chet Wynne of Kentucky played quarterback and fullback respectively on the same Notre Dame team. Thomas has been coaching the Tide since Wallace Wade left the Alabama school, and Wynne was formerly coach at Auburn, just a few miles distant from Tuscaloosa; yet this will be the first time that the two coaches have had to pit their charges against each other.

One of the largest crowds in the history of Kentucky football is expected to be on hand when the opening whistle sounds. Reports from S. A. "Daddy" Boles, graduate manager of athletics, state that some 9,000 seats have already been sold and more calls are coming in every day. Bleacher seats are being erected at each end of the field to accommodate the large crowd.

Woman's Honorary Will Hold Dance

Ushering in the Homecoming celebration, Mortar Board's dutch dance will be held today from 4 to 6 p. m. in the recreation room of Patterson hall. Cooperating with the woman's senior honorary, all sororities have called off their open houses for this afternoon.

A small fee is being charged for each person attending the dance, the funds from which will be used to carry on the program of Mortar Board. Breaking at the dance may be done by either men or women and all may come to the dance "stag." Music for the dance will be furnished by Andy Anderson and his orchestra.

NOTICE!

Students on Federal aid will receive their pay today in the business office, beginning at 10 a. m. All work sheets must be in the offices of the dean of men and the dean of women beforehand. All work sheets, requisitions, etc., must be sent to the Louisville office on Monday.

Football Cheering Section Organized

One Hundred Students Will Comprise U. K. Rooting Unit

In order to make the cheering at the football games throughout the remainder of the season more effective, 100 male students have been trained by the cheer leaders so that they might learn thoroughly every cheer and song popular to the students.

This group, composed of 40 independent men and 60 fraternity members, representative of each fraternity, will form a special cheering section. Practice on the yells will be held before each game and before each pep rally, and it is expected that by employing this method of cheering, the remainder of the student body will cooperate.

One point for O.D.K., campus leadership fraternity, will be given to each member of this group, but if a member does not appear for a practice or a game, he forfeits his place, and another student, whose name appears on the waiting list, will be selected for membership in the group.

Elephants and Cats Meet In Annual Melee Saturday

When the Red Elephants from the University of Alabama and the Wildcats from the University of Kentucky clash on the Stoll field gridiron tomorrow afternoon, it will be the 13th consecutive meeting of the two teams, and the 14th encounter in the football history of both schools.

The Crimson Tide has managed to win all but one of the 13 games, and that was back in 1922 when B. L. Pribble, head freshman coach at the University, was captain. The teams played their first game in 1917, and Alabama defeated the Big Blue, 28 to 0. The four-year lapse in relations between 1917 and 1922 cannot be accounted for.

This year the Elephants will come to Lexington with one of the best teams they have had since 1930, when they went to the Rose Bowl in California for the New Year's Day game.

It will be the Crimson Tide's sixth game of the season, and their fifth consecutive conference tilt of the year. Present indications show that they are headed for a national championship and a probable invitation to the Rose Bowl again. If they get by Kentucky, as most people say they will, the Tide without a doubt will go through an undefeated season.

Although confident of winning Saturday's battle, Alabama is sure that it is not going to be a push-over game, and Coach Frank Thomas is anxious for his men to be in the best possible condition for the encounter. In the early part of the season the Tide was somewhat handicapped by serious injuries, but with the exception of Kavanaugh Francis, Alabama center, the Tide came out of the Georgia game without any serious casualties. Francis may be out of the line-up against Kentucky.

The Crimson Tide has a potential All-American half back in Dixie

SUKY CIRCLE TO STAGE LARGEST RALLY OF YEAR

Sparkler Parade, Huge Bonfire, Speech by Wynne to Be Featured

PROGRAM BEGINS IN MEN'S GYM AT 7:00

Band and Glee Club to Be Present; Routine Cheers to Be Practiced

Featuring a sparkler parade through the downtown section, a bonfire on Stoll field, speeches by Coach Chet Wynne and members of the team, and songs by the University Glee club, SuKy circle will stage its biggest pep rally of the season tonight at 7 o'clock at the Alumni gymnasium, in preparation for the annual Homecoming game with Alabama tomorrow.

The program will start at 7 o'clock with the formation of the parade in front of the gymnasium, led by the band. The order of march will be down Limestone street to Main, up Main to Rose, up Rose to Euclid, and down Euclid to the entrance of Stoll field. When the parade reaches the field, a giant bonfire will be lighted. The program at the field will consist of speeches by both Coach Wynne of Kentucky, Coach Thomas of Alabama, and all members of the varsity. New songs and yells will be led by the cheerleaders, and following this the cheerleading team will give a tumbling exhibition. The team has been training for the past few weeks under the supervision of C. W. Hackensmith of the physical education department. The University Glee club under the direction of Prof. Carl A. Lampert, will render several numbers.

The two live wildcat mascots which have been obtained by SuKy, have been shipped and are due to arrive today. If so, they will be presented at the rally.

Plans for the organized cheering section which will perform for the first time at the game Saturday, have been completed. The section consists of 100 men, 60 of whom are fraternity and 40 independent men, and have been trained by the cheerleaders. The object of the section is to promote bigger and better cheering at the games. One point toward membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership fraternity, is given each man in the section.

Homecoming Events Will Be Centered Around Cat-Bama Classic and Alumni Dance

Registration for Grads to Begin at 9:30 a. m. Today at Booths in Front of Union Station Square

FRATS TO COMPETE FOR PRIZES

From early Saturday morning until after midnight, the Lexington and the University campus will be the scene of numerous events, centering around the Kentucky-Alabama classic at the afternoon and the Alumni dance at the gymnasium that night, for the special entertainment of alumni, students and friends expected here for Homecoming Day at the University.

Registration of the alumni, beginning at 9:30 a. m., will open the day's activities. If weather permits, a table or booth will be stationed in front of the Union station, halfway between the Lafayette and Phoenix hotels. A committee of the Lexington Alumni club will be stationed at this table to register the visitors.

Mrs. Thomas R. Underwood and Miss Annett Kelly will be in charge of registration at the Lafayette hotel. Miss Betty Hulet and Robert K. Salyers will have charge of the registration at the Phoenix hotel. The blue and white colors of the University will be given to all alumni who register.

Sororities and fraternities will have special decorations on the front of their respective houses in competition for the prizes offered by the SuKy circle for the best decorated fraternity and sorority. The Lexington Board of Commerce is cooperating with SuKy in getting downtown merchants to decorate their windows. According to Betty Hulet, secretary of the Alumni association, the Lexington merchants have joined almost 100 percent in decorating their windows, and a revival of the spirit and enthusiasm prevalent years ago on the campus is expected to greet the old grads.

During the Kentucky-Alabama football game, the University and Transylvania bands will parade on the field between halves. The University band has created several new formations especially for the alumni visitors. The Alabama band, unable to make the trip, will be replaced by the Transylvania band, which has consented to represent the Alabama band.

Following the game, President and Mrs. McVey will be at home to alumni, friends, students and faculty members of the University. This annual function has become one of the most delightful spots of the whole Homecoming Day program and is looked forward to by the hosts of alumni who return to the University every year.

The final event of the day will be the Homecoming Dance from 9 to 12 o'clock. Andy Anderson and his orchestra will play for the dance. During the dance, SuKy will announce the winners of the best originally decorated fraternity and sorority house, and the most appropriate decorated store window.

Chaperons for the dance will be Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. McVey, Judge and Mrs. Charles I. Dawson, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. E. Cronley Elliott, Miss Marguerite McLaughlin, Mrs. P. K. Holmes, Dean Sarah G. Blanding, and Dean and Mrs. T. T. Jones.

Miss "Marge" is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements for homecoming.

WE APPRECIATE

We students too seldom realize, and consequently fail to show our gratitude, for the actual time, money, and energy expended in the interest of the University, and therefore of the students of the University, by a number of individuals, some of whom are not even alumni of the institution. These persons have no thought of gaining anything for themselves by this work except the pleasure of feeling that they are doing something worthwhile.

There is little sense in being abstract on the subject of offering thanks to these individuals; for they do not have any titles that their names be brought before the public. The Kernel, speaking for the student body, believes that they deserve what recognition we can give them for their work.

A committee appointed from the members of the Lexington Board of Commerce has given a considerable amount of time recently to soliciting for the University Grants in Aid fund, besides contributing heavily to it themselves. The men who have worked, and are still working on this committee, are Everett Milward, a U. K. graduate of a few years ago, chairman of the committee, Wash Reed, president of the Lexington Utilities, Fred Wachs, managing editor of The Lexington Leader, Collis Ringo, of Angelucci and Ringo, and B. L. Pribble, freshman coach. Besides these, Ed Wilder, secretary of the Board of Commerce, has given his full support, and Wallace Muir, that most ardent of Kentucky supporters whom we all know, has been tireless in his efforts to help in every way possible.

In today's issue we have a list of those persons and concerns who already have contributed in considerable amounts to the Grants in Aid fund. We wish to thank them heartily as well as the members of the committee.

A TACTFUL REWARD

An organization, no matter how vast and independent it may become, can not afford to neglect rising occasions of reward to its personnel. In many types of establishments, such an oversight would be costly, and realizing this fact, they have conscientiously worked to offset such a condition.

What better symbol of appreciation for loyalty and cooperation could the university offer to house-mothers, dormitory matrons, and similar personnel officials than by the presentation of tickets to all athletic events? These individuals are the one group among the University's organizations who we know would consider such a move an extremely considerate and generous gesture.

These persons earnestly strive to do their duty. One of the prerequisites is that they be interested in all affairs of campus life. Many of them go to all games regardless of cost, while others find that their salaries do not stand such a drain on them. Why not let the gift of a ticket to all games serve as a token of appreciation and good will toward them and, in turn, urge them to maintain an efficiency at their jobs?

JOIN THE K. E. A.

Every member of the University staff has been urged to become a part of the Kentucky Education Association, an organization of all persons engaged in educational work throughout the state. Since the University is the largest publicly supported institution in Kentucky, it should play a prominent role in membership and activities of the K. E. A.

Membership in the association is not limited to those who teach in public schools, nor even to those engaged in the training of teachers. All members of the faculty and staff of the University are eligible to join.

At all times the Kentucky Education association sponsors movements designated for the betterment of the entire educational system. Its work in the past has been noteworthy, and much of the legislation proposed by the body, particularly revenue legislation, has directly benefitted the University.

It is hoped that all who have not yet done so, will take advantage of the opportunity to enroll now. If a large percentage of the staff takes membership, the more convincing will be the evidence of the University's support of constructive school legislation. Our school should have adequate representation within the K. E. A.

JEST AMONG US

Several persons have asked us why we do not divulge our name to a wondering public; well, we enjoy living as much as anyone.

Since the fence has been stretched across the west lawn of the campus, our colored brethren from over the way can now enjoy their little game of football without interruption from us students.

We always have been taught to be kind and to like animals, and now how we do love to hear our neighbor's little dog howl all night!

The red, white and blue will be seen on Stoll field tomorrow, but quite obviously the spirit of '76 will be lacking.

Intelligence tests are given freshmen students; the same tests should be given when they are graduated, to determine just how much they have regressed.

SCANDAL SNICKERINGS

By CAMERON V. COFFMAN

The Gai With the Rose

Sarah Whittinghill it is. . . Her unusual ability, her congenial temperament and her accomplishments have made her an outstanding figure on the campus.

Keepin' the Home Fires Burnin', J. D?

KA J. D. Haggard was sighted very late Saturday night (or very early Sunday morning), as he nonchalantly piled leaves on a small fire in the middle of Waller avenue. . . An investigation revealed that Sarah Slack spent the night with Betty Boyd. . . Now draw your own conclusion, mis amigos. . . But just what sacrifices won't a man make for a woman?

According to some of his Sigmaky brothers, Howard Smathers has come rapidly to the political front since the departure of Bus "Boss" Yeager. . . Our Sigmaky friend now carries the moniker "Bus". . . His ensemble needs only a derby, a pair of spats, a diamond tie stud and a cigar to make his "race track" suit the real thing.

How About It, Betty?

We hear that Chlo pleb, Betty Jackson, thinks Delt Reg Rlee is right nifty.

Maybe We Can Book You At the Next World's Fair, Phil Word comes to us that Sally Rand has a new competitor on the campus. . . His name—Phil Ardery. . . His costume—a towel, a derby and a necktie. . . The place—the Phidelt lodge. . . The spectators—Never mind. . . Find out for yourself. . . Ask Phil, he'll tell you. . . Maybe.

Alphagam Lil Smith says that Delt Bill Jacobs can explain why her nose is sore. . . Can you, Bill?

Word has arrived on the Q. T. that Frank Dailey has deserted the cute Edith Reager and is now camping on the doorstep of Wanda Berry, new Tridelt promisee. . .

What's On Your Mind, Anna Bain? Doctor Best was calling the roll in sociology class. . . Everyone was making his presence known by the usual sign. . . He called Anna Bain Hillenmeyer's name. . . Suddenly this petite Tridelt came to life and casually remarked, "By."

You Name the Man

On the campus he travels in the best of triangles.

What Were the Terms of the Bet, "Dog"?

Delt T. C. Endicott recently paid a financial debt because Patterson statue failed to stand up when he passed it with one of his feminine admirers.

The KA lodge has been sending out two B. O. S. signals during the last week. . . One for the immortal beer keg that some one had the audacity to lift from the front room of their dwelling. . . The other signal is for Brother Jimmy O'Brien. . . He was last sighted in Cincinnati sometime during the last week. . . Our guess for his sudden departure is an attractive little brunette by the name of Etta McCall.

Watch Out, Missy!

'Tis rumored that Tridelt Catherine Cole, the little cupcake from Tennessee and roommate of "Cotton-top" Craddock, thinks Bill Edmonds, the Pampas King, is rather keen. . . What about it, Cole?

He Won't Tell

Many persons are wondering where Warfield Donahue obtained the title "Lord."

The Turnipseed Again Georgia Turnipseed was escorted to Saturday's game by 14 Phidelts. . . When they arrived at Stoll field. . . Well—Turnip had forgotten her ticket book.

Sigmaky Bill Swishelm received a telephone call after eleven o'clock Tuesday night from Tridelt plebe, Virginia Kendrick. . . Also. . . Sigmaky Howard James looks very sheepish when you refer to a certain telephone call to him. . . Ask him. . . then watch him.

Who Was She, Algie?

Leslie "Algie" Scott finally broke his long bachelor spell and attended the theatre Tuesday night with a femme. . . Shame on you, Algie.

Helpin' Him Hold His Honey, Martha?

Tridelt Martha Bittner has the interest of her sisters at heart. . . This fact was proved Tuesday afternoon when she let Phidelt Louis Finley have her car to take his courtes, Anna Bain Hillenmeyer, for a tour.

How Much Did It Cost, Bill?

We read in one of the downtown papers where ATO Bill Heath has purchased a share in the municipality of Lexington.

Mary Ford "Greta" Offutt is confessing again. . . She says she is heading for Auburn. . . Her reason, we understand, is an aeronautical engineer.

A Real Blessed Event

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith have become the proud parents of a baby girl. . . "Papa" Smith, who was a Sigmaky here in recent years, was formerly national "C" class outboard motorboat racing champion. . . Congrats, Jack, where's our cigars?

Phidelt Dick Chauvet values his fraternity pin at exactly $22.50. . . But just how do you place this valuation, Dick?

God gave women a sense of humor so that they could love men rather than laugh at them.

Petite Piece

By LORRAINE LEPERE

The attractive window displays of the downtown merchants in connection with the Auburn game were a big help to the Wildcats. Satisfaction of some sort ought to come to these business men after the victory on Stoll field Saturday. However, when you need decorations is at homecoming time, and since the alums will be with us on the occasion of the Alabama game, let's hope they turn on again. Speaking of the Auburn game, the first real cheering I have heard at any time where the Wildcat fans were making an attempt to be heard was done last Saturday. From the top of the stadium they sounded great, and I have no doubt but that a mighty echo could be heard over in the opposite stands. If this keeps up, we'll have some school spirit.

A freshman told me not long ago that the upperclassmen of the University were the most indifferent he had ever come in contact with. "Sure," he said, "if I go around to my fraternity house and make a crack like that, they'll beat me, but that doesn't help when it comes time to show a little spirit." I shouldn't doubt but that the kid's right. After all, the freshmen learn from the rest of us. What they pick up is our fault.

It was surprising to find so little hilarity at the SuKy dance, since Saturday was so cold. Many of the fans resort to a kind of interior heating system that peeps them up to the point that they're either right jovial or right something else.

Splinters—Bromo Sulzer, the D.U. from DePauw, believes in geology—as a hobby. . . Coffman has been hiding, but he came out in the open Monday and played a good hand of contract. This bird McNash is really getting a hand, he deserves it. . . A note from an alum in Alabama says that we spend too much time talking about each other here at school and that our degrees don't mean what they used to. . . Sag Kash, one of the old guards, is back with us again. . . Take some time of and read Uncle Enoch's "Paraphrases." you'll see a side of him you never knew. . . That anchor the band effected was mighty good. . . Doctor Cole definitely does not want to be quoted when she talks about the higher-ups in governmental affairs. Drop in and see the murals in Memorial hall. . . They're like a game, you have to figure them out. . . Side glance at Art Muth—placid.

Situation: One of them forms the nucleus for the entire quadrangle. He's the center, and two girls are his trouble, so his pal and side kick has to double. One of the girls doesn't mind, but it's plenty hard on the other. You figure it out.

In view of the fact that every fraternity of this campus is not represented in Lances, a committee, composed of Elvis Stahr, Basil Baker, and J. L. Moore, was appointed to check the activities of the most outstanding junior man of the fraternities that are not represented. These men will be elected to membership.

"DONE IN?.."

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

ROBERT FEDDERN '35. He says: "I'm interested in every phase of flying—majoring in aeronautics. It takes a lot of mental concentration. Three or four hours of intense study is enough to tire anyone. I light up a Camel frequently. Camels always give me a 'lift' that quickly chases away any tired feeling. And what a flavor Camels have—so rich and mild!"

Here's the way to get back your energy quickly when you feel glum and weary! Thousands of smokers have adopted the way of combating low energy and low spirits mentioned by Feddern. When their energy sags down they smoke a Camel and get a delightful "lift!" It's healthful—delightful—enjoyable. Smoke Camels as often as you want them. Their finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS never get on the nerves!

AIR HOSTESS. Says Miss Marian McMichael, R.N., of the American Airlines: "When the run is over and I'm off duty, my first move is to light a Camel. A Camel quickly relieves any feeling of tiredness—and how good it tastes. Camels are so delightfully mild!"

ANIMAL COLLECTOR. Frank Buck says: "It takes healthy nerves to bring 'em back alive. It's a job packed with thrills, excitement and real danger. I am a heavy smoker. I like to smoke Camels, for I can safely smoke all I want without upsetting my nerves."
